

Another open house was held the following day with over 30 people who toured the building. A walking tour of the village was conducted by Bob Tegart. For the 4th of July Parade the Historical Society had a float with an old wooden plow and buckboard from the collection of Marygrace Welch.

In 1994 the Clinton Historical Society took possession of the Baptist Church which was built in 1836. Up until its full renovation the building was used largely for storage. A fund drive was started in 1999 to make the church into a visitor friendly museum

A mixture of grants, matching gifts, donations from prominent local businesses leaders and professionals, officials, and large and small benefactors made the reconstruction possible. Capital Campaign Chair Clarence Aldridge announced in a May 2001 status report that $251,000 of the $300,000 goal had been achieved. Additional gifts enabled the project to be completed.

Here are just a few pictures depicting progress of the renovation at various points. Many more are available at the museum. Stop in to see them all.

GRAND OPENING JULY 2ND JOIN US!

Members, Donors & Friends

You are cordially invited to the Society's GRAND OPENING of the newly renovated quarters July 2, 2001 on Monday at 7PM. A ribbon-cutting ceremony will be held at the front door after which the assemblage will convene on the first floor area for brief comments by Society officers and other officials.

MUNSON LIBRARY DEDICATION

After the GRAND OPENING the Society will dedicate its entire collection of books, pamphlets, pictures, paintings, periodicals, family files, and documents as the MUNSON LIBRARY in memory of Society founder, past president, and newsletter writer and editor for 37 years, Phil Munson, who passed away in November 2000.

Twenty years ago, over 100 people gathered for the Grand Opening ceremony at the renovated Clinton Baptist Church. Remarks were delivered by Mayor Gil Goering, Town Supervisor Annette Foley, Hamilton College President Eugene Tobin, Assemblyman William Magee, and Society President Richard Williams. Helen Munson, the widow of Philip Munson, was on hand as the museum's first floor collection was dedicated in his name. A plaque bearing his name was to be affixed to the shelving. New display case exhibits on this level would be available for all to view. The Apothecary Shop, formerly located in the Park Row Drug Store, and large artifacts were available for the public to visit on the lower level. Attendees enjoyed refreshments while socializing, mingling, and discussing major milestones over 39 years of the Society's existence.
